MISS ROWELL RANCH RODEO QUEEN CONTEST

Dear Contestants and Parents/Guardians,

The Rowell Ranch Rodeo Queen Committee would like to welcome and encourage the presence of parents, relatives, and friends of the contestants to attend those functions that are not restricted to only contestants and judges.

Once the contest begins the Rowell Ranch Rodeo Queen Committee asks that there be no direct communication to contestants from family, relatives, or friends unless authorized by a chaperone or committee person. It may be thought that such rigid control is unnecessary, but it is required to insure the cooperation and safety of each contestant.

Due to the tremendous responsibility of meeting and varied schedules of the contest activities the Rowell Ranch Rodeo Queen Committee expects full cooperation from parents, relatives, and friends.

If you have any questions regarding the contest and its rules please feel free to call us.

Respectfully yours,
Bridgette Davilla

MISS ROWELL RANCH RODEO QUEEN CONTEST

Pageant Categories

1. WRITTEN TEST

The written test will be given the night of the mandatory orientation meeting. The purpose of this judging is to test the contestant's knowledge of horses, tack, equine knowledge and rodeo in general. The written test will be timed and consist of matching , fill in the blank, and multiple choice.

2. HORSEMANSHIP

Horsemanship Attire - Western Cowboy Hat, Cowboy boots, long sleeve collared shirt, Wrangler Jeans. Other accessories such as vest, jewelry, etc. are allowed. NO CHAPS.

Contestants must provide their own horse for the contest and be allowed 30 minutes to warm up their horses.

Horsemanship Pattern will be given at Orientation Meeting

Contestants will be judged on:

- Modified stock pattern, Queen Presentation ride (wave/salute) and the ability to carry a flag. Additional performance as suggested by the judging panel may be required.
- Borrowed Horse – each contestant will have to ride the same horse that will be provided. The horse will already be warmed up and ready to go with saddle and bridle. Each contestant will have a chance to move the stir-ups to the appropriate length. The Borrowed Horse Pattern will be different from the Horsemanship Pattern and given at orientation meeting.
- Control of the horse while riding and on the ground
- Understanding of basic psychology and ability to communicate with the horse and handle any situation that might come up.

- Balance – Ability to sit a saddle correctly, in a manner that will help the horse to maneuver, and keep the rider seated in a safe position at all times.
- Correctness – Using the “correct” techniques to achieve certain results. Not making any basic errors, not causing harm to the horse physically, and on its training process. You should be able to explain any training techniques you are using with your horse.
- Horse Knowledge – Tack, health, care, feeding, anatomy, and training.
- Rodeo Knowledge – History of the Rowell Ranch Rodeo, history of Professional Rodeo, organization of the PRCA explanation of standard events, current standings, current events, terminology, equipment, rules, and regulations.

This information is available through the PRCA Media Guide, Pro Rodeo Sports News, and the book “Here’s A Go!” All are available at Rowell’s Saddlery in Castro Valley.

3. PERSONAL INTERVIEWS

Interview Attire – Interview jacket, color coordinated collar shirt, Wrangler jeans or skirt/dress, cowboy hat, and cowboy boots. Other accessories such as vest, jewelry, etc. are allowed Interviews will be held in each category where the judges will be asking questions to determine the character and knowledge of each contestant, whether they are being questioned on the sport of Rodeo and related activities, horse science, or current events (local and worldwide). Interview length will be sufficient for the contestant and judges to communicate. (Approximately 10-15 minutes in each interview).

4. SPEECH

Attire - Long sleeve western dress or jacket with color coordinated collar shirt paired with a skirt/dress, cowboy hat, and cowboy boots. Other accessories such as vest, jewelry, etc. are allowed

Each contestant will be required to give a 2-3 minute speech in front of judges. Topics of speeches will be given at the mandatory orientation.

The judges will be looking for:

- Content
- Delivery
- Style
- Poise Presentation
- Voice
- Enthusiasm
